WIGMORE CC are once again extremely grateful to Simon Hill of Smith's Granary Farm for allowing us the use of his field as an HQ area. Not only that but allowing us to tap into his electricity supply, help ourselves to water and commandeer a stable for the tea bar. Simon had also put up an incentive of £250 to the winner if 3 minutes had been beaten. The aim was to encourage a few more ace climbers to the event. The event though achieving 60 entries, a figure exceeded on just 4 previous occasions, has yet meet that aim..

In Bill Bell we have a new name on our winners list. Congratulations Bill and also to all of the other prize winners. A lot of new faces this time around. We hope that you will visit us again. Tell your friends what a wonderful experience it is to be about the atmosphere that comes with such events. And get them to have a go next year.

Thanks go to Dave Abbotts (Gravesend CC) and Vic Williams (Medway Velo Club) for a splendid job as usual with the watches. Also to Richard Clark (Wigmore CC) acting as recorder. My thanks also to the tea ladies, Pearl, Ann and Barbara who also provided the excellant home made cakes. Also to Clin, Roy, Dave. Mo, Beryl, Nobby and Steve for carrying out their duties so enthusiastically.

Finally my thanks to all who entered. Wigmore Cycling Club hope to see you all and more again next year.
